

Program

ECARDC X: Rural China and its Global Connections

April 8 – 10, 2011

Aarhus University Conference Center
Building 1420 & 1421, Frederik Nielsens Vej 4

Program ECARDC X: Rural China and its Global Connections

Aarhus University, April 8 – 10, 2011

Friday, April 8th

Time	Plenary session
	Meeting room 2 (Mødelokale 2)
8.30 – 9.15	Registration
9.15 – 10.30	Welcome speech by Stig Thøgersen Keynote Speech: Liberalizing Reforms and Rural Society: Comparing China and India Professor Prasenjit Duara, Singapore National University Discussion
10.30 – 10.45	Coffee/Tea break
	Parallel sessions
	Meeting room 2 (Mødelokale 2)	Meeting room 1 (Mødelokale 1)
10.45 – 12.15	Governance in Rural China I Chair: Björn Alpermann University of Würzburg Björn Alpermann (University of Würzburg): Village Governance Reforms in China: Paradigm Shift or Muddling Through? Anna L. Ahlers (University of Tübingen): Model- ling the 'Building of a New Socialist Coun- tryside' (shehui zhuyi xinnongcun jianshe) in three Chinese Counties Liu Yiqiang (Central China Normal University): Information Technology, Peasants' Political Actions and the Changing of China's Rural Governance	Agricultural Trade: Competitiveness, Impacts and Growth Chair: Colin Brown The University of Queensland Guo Zhichao (China Agricultural University & Univer- sity of Paderborn): Analysis of Structural Breaks and Growth Causes of China-Germany Agricul- tural Trade Mao Weizhun (University of Konstanz): Trade Should Benefit the Poor: A Comparative Case Study on the Relations between Rural Areas and Free Trade from a Perspective of NGOs in China Yan Xiaohuan (Justus Liebig University Giessen): Competitiveness and Complementarity of Agricul- tural Trade between China and Africa

12.15 – 13.15	Lunch (Richard Mortensen Stuen)
13.15 – 15.30 Including a 15 min. break at the discretion of the panel chair	Current Challenges in China's Agricultural Sector I Chair: Tommy Dalgaard Aarhus University Tan Shuhao (Renmin University, China): Shift of Grain Gravity Center in China: Possible Causes and Potential Consequences Chen Fengbo (South China Agricultural University): Labor Market, Endowments and Rice Cropping Patterns Adoption. Evidence from the Yangzi River Area Kong Xiangzhi (Renmin University): Current Status and Prospects of Farmers' Specialized Cooperatives in Shanxi, Ningxia and Shandong Provinces in China	Rural Microeconomics Chair: Scott Waldron The University of Queensland Tor Viking Eriksson (Aarhus University): The Role of Family Background for Earnings in Rural China Hu Bao (Zhejiang Academy of Agricultural Sciences): Determinants of Households' Decision-making on Agricultural Structural Adjustment Adam Komarek (University of Western Sydney): A Heterogeneous-agent Model with District-level Constraints: An Application to Livestock Development in Gansu, China (Co-authors: Scott Waldron and Colin Brown) Max Spoor (Erasmus University): Peasant Production and Income Diversification in Southern Xinjiang (Co-author Shi Xiaoping)
15.30 – 16.00	Coffee/Tea break
16.00 – 17.00	Current Challenges II: Consuming Rural China Chair: Tommy Dalgaard Aarhus University Dale Jiajun Wen (Third World Network): China's Ongoing GMO Debate: Domestic and International Implications John Thøgersen (Aarhus University): Chinese Consumers' Adoption Of a "Green" Innovation – The Case of Organic Food	Emerging scholars I Chair: Stig Thøgersen Aarhus University Susanne Löhr (University of Duisburg-Essen): How the Reform for "Province Managing County" (sheng guan xian) Changes Local Institutional Structures and Policy Processes: A Case Study of Environmental Policy Formation and Implementation Processes Hermann Aubie (University of Rennes 2): Glocal Governmentalities and Their Intellectual Connections. An Interpretation of the Chongqing Experience in "Urban-Rural Integration" Armin Müller (University Duisburg-Essen): The Dynamics of Institutional Change in Rural China's Health Reforms

Saturday, April 9th

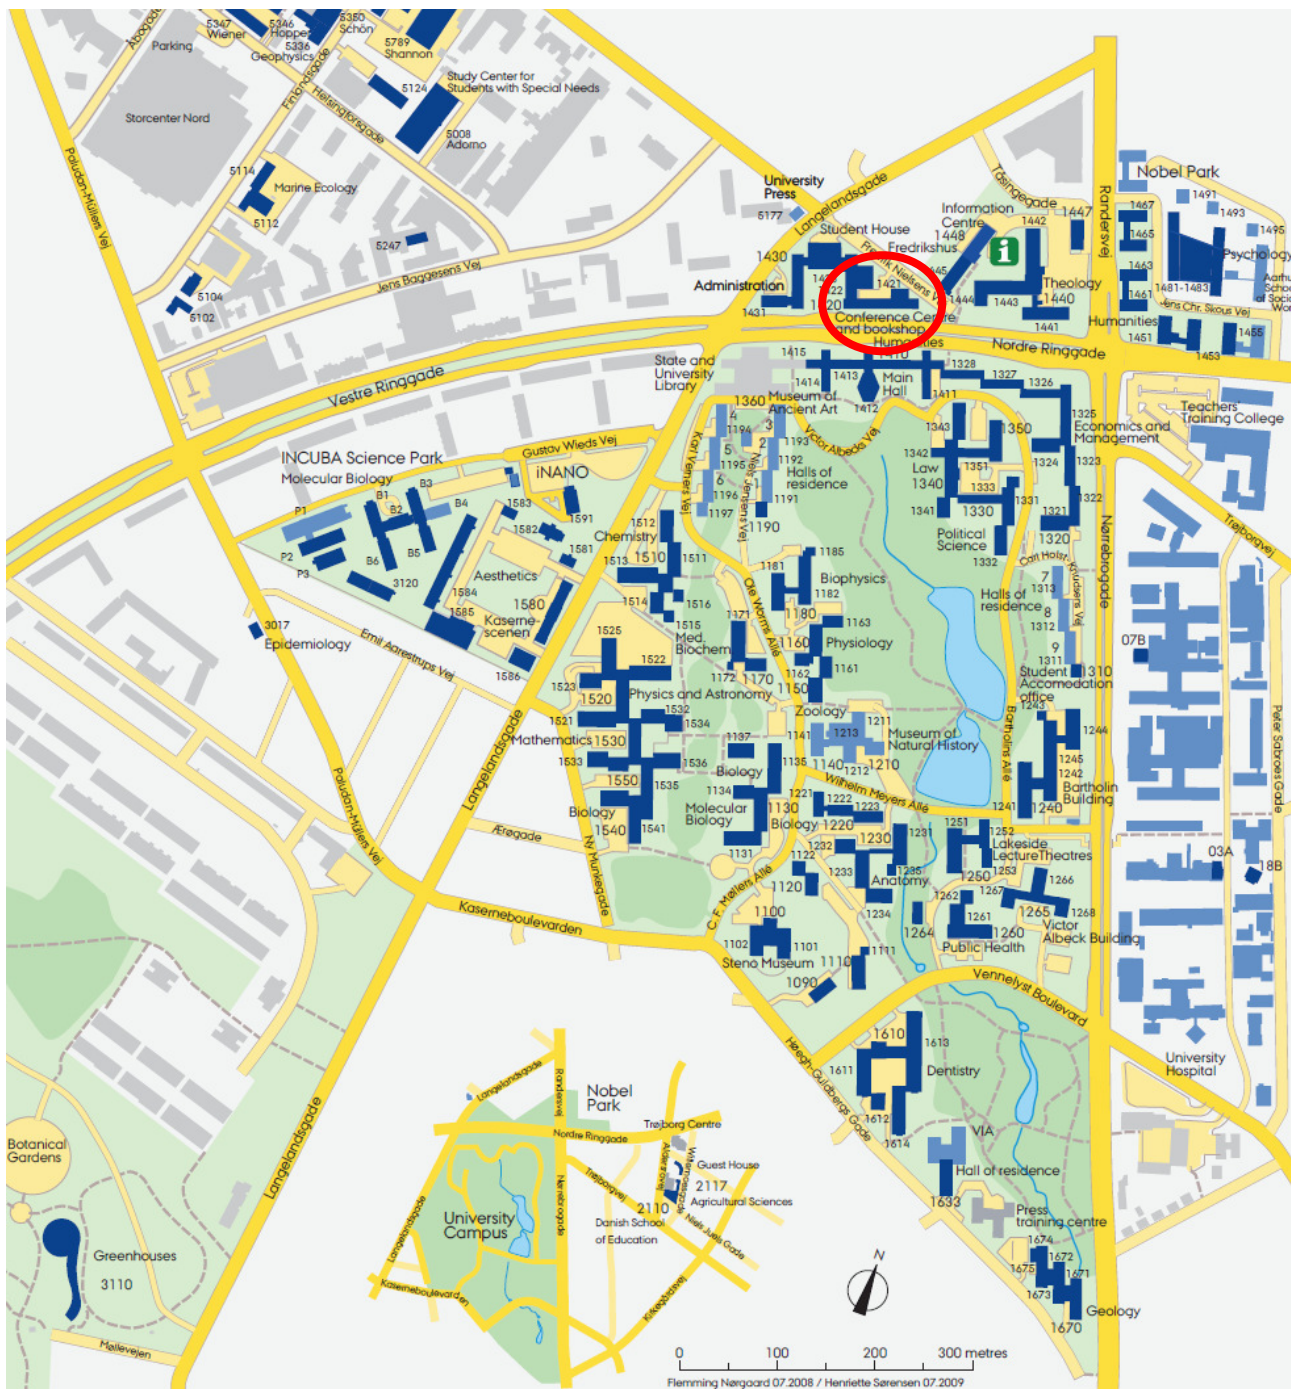

Time	Plenary Session
	Meeting room 2 (Mødelokale 2)
9.00 – 10.00	Keynote Speech: China and Global Food Security Jim Harkness, President of the Institute for Agriculture and Trade Policy Discussion
10.00 – 10.15	Coffee/Tea break
	Parallel sessions
	Meeting room 2 (Mødelokale 2)	Meeting room 1 (Mødelokale 1)
10.15 – 12.00	Rural Development and Farmers' Rights Chair: Jørgen Delman Copenhagen University Wang Xigen (Wuhan University): On the Farmer's Right to Development in China Xia Tian (Central China Normal University): Non-cooperation under Democratic Participation: An Analysis of Villagers' Self-governance dilemma – a Case Study of Beilaohao Village Heather Zhang (University of Leeds): Rural-Urban Migration, Risk and Livelihoods in China	Researching and Consuming Rural China Chair: Sascha Klotzbücher University of Vienna Sascha Klotzbücher (University of Vienna): Patterns of Western Research in Rural China: An Epistemological Perspective on Field Studies Lena Springer (University of Vienna): Peasants Who Became Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) Academics and Their Views of the Post-Maoist Market for TCM Products Marina Svensson (Lund University): Independent Documentary Films and the Rural: Global and Domestic Consumption of the Chinese Countryside
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch (Preben Hornung Stuen)
	Parallel sessions
	Meeting room 2 (Mødelokale 2)	Meeting room 1 (Mødelokale 1)
13.00 – 14.30	Governance in Rural China II Chair: Björn Alpermann University of Würzburg Alfred M. Wu (City University of Hong Kong): Globalization and the Role of County Governments in China (Presented by Björn Alpermann)	Emerging Scholars II Chair: Ane Bislev Aarhus University Yin Tao (University of Oslo): Strong Woman as the Intermediary among Local, National, and Transnational Areas: A Case from Central Rural China

	René Trappel (University of Duisburg-Essen): Audits and Auditees: An Alternative Perspective on Cadres' Performance Audits in Rural China Christian Göbel (Lund University): Government Propaganda and the Organization of Rural China	Gui Xiaowei (Copenhagen University): Encountering Individualization: Dilemmas between Freedom and Conformity in Transitional Rural China Ann-Kathrin Prior (University of Duisburg-Essen): Institutional Change in the Rural Financial Markets in China Gao Ning (Gent University): Morphological Evolution of China's Countryside around Big Cities
14.30 - 15.00 -	Coffee/Tea break (ECARDC Steering Committee Meeting in Meeting room 1)
15.00 - 16.30	Land Issues: Transitions and Conflicts Chair: Heather Zhang Leeds University Peter Ho (Leiden University): Land, Ownership and Housing in China: Trends, Conflict and Evictions Wang Lijuan (Zhejiang Academy of Agricultural Sciences): Globalization and Land-Use Transitions in China Sara Brogaard (Lund University): Seeing through a Global Political Ecology Lens: Land Degradation Policy in China (Co-authors: Elina Andersson, Anne Jerneck, Lennart Olsson, Andreas Wilkes)	Foreign Capital, Trade Policy and Overseas Chinese Investment in Rural China Chair: Adam Komarek University of Western Sydney Lu Yarong (Renmin University): What Does it Mean when Large-scale Foreign Capital Enters China's Agriculture Chains? He Donghang (Central China Normal University): Family Enterprises and Rural Construction in Overseas Chinese Villages in Southern China: Examples from Villages in the South of Fujian Province Yu Wusheng (University of Copenhagen): Trade Policy Responses to Food Price Rises and Implications for Existing Domestic Support Measures: The Case of China in 2008
16.45	Bus departure: Sightseeing and conference dinner. A bus will pick us up behind the conference center. The destination depends on the weather, but if you brought comfortable shoes now would be a good time to wear them.
18.30	Conference dinner. At Restaurant Skovmøllen. The bus will bring us back to the city center around 22.30. If you do not wish to attend the dinner, please let us know.

Sunday, April 10th

Time	Parallel sessions
	Meeting room 2 (Mødelokale 2)	Meeting room 1 (Mødelokale 1)
9.00 – 10.30	Commodities and Value Chains I Chair: Louis Augustin-Jean University of Tsukuba Ni Hui (Kyoto University): Contract Farming in Chinese Sericulture and Silk Industry Colin Brown (The University of Queensland): The Dynamics of the Chinese Wool Industry: a Confluence of Economic, Social, Political, Institutional and Environmental Factors (co-authors: Scott Waldron and John Longworth) Scott Waldron (The University of Queensland): China and the Reconfiguration of the Global Cashmere Value Chain (co-authors: Colin Brown and Adam Komarek)	Organizing Rural China Chair: Christian Göbel Lund University Stig Thøgersen (Aarhus University): Imagining Rural Communities Ane Bislev: Different Visions of Social Cohesion: Microcredit Organizations and their Customers. Ma Hua (Central China Normal University): Improving the Democratic Capacity of Peasants – Taking the “Nannong Experiment” as a Case
10.30 – 10.45	Coffee/Tea break
	Plenary session
	Meeting room 2 (Mødelokale 2)
10.45 – 11.45	Commodities and Value Chains II Chair: Louis Augustin-Jean University of Tsukuba Jørgen Delman (Copenhagen University): A Value Chain Gone Awry: Implications of the ‘Tainted Milk Scandal’ in 2008 for Political and Social Organization in Rural China (co-author: Yang Minghong) Louis Augustin-Jean (University of Tsukuba): The Social Construction of the Sugar Market in China in the Context of Globalization
11.45 – 12.30	Announcement of time, venue and organizer of ECARDC XI followed by discussion. Closing of Conference
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch (Preben Hornung Stuen)

Map of Aarhus University – The Conference Center is marked in red

Contact information for the organizing committee:

Stig Thøgersen: +45 2860 6776

Laura Møller Dombrowsky: + 45 26847096

Ane Bislev: +45 3070 5779

We would like to thank the following organizations for supporting the conference:

The S. C. Van Foundation

The EAC Foundation

The Danish Research Council for the Humanities

The Faculty of Arts, Aarhus University

The Department of History and Area Studies, Aarhus University

